Lionel Richie's 'Coming Home' Tour reaches Spain this summer. His current tour of Europe has seen him playing over 50 of the biggest arenas across fourteen countries in the last three months.

This date will be his only Spanish date on the tour, playing at the world famous Puente Romano Tennis Club, Marbella, on July 31st

Richie's success story over nearly 30 years is legendary, having sold over 100 million albums, written some of the most well known and best loved songs in the world – won a staggering five Grammy Awards, one Oscar, and a Golden Globe, not to mention the pile of American Music Awards, The People's Choice Award and the Crystal Award for Humanitarianism, the UK's MOBO Award and many others too numerous to mention.

Lionel's blistering live performances will give fans the chance to hear ALL THE HITS, ALL NIGHT LONG as he performs classics including Three Times a Lady, Running With the Night, Penny Lover, Easy, All Night Long, and Dancing on the Ceiling and introduces tracks from his fabulous new album including his new single "I Call It Love", "All Around the World" and "Why".

Lionel Richie's new album "Coming Home" on Mercury Records and is the most exciting he's made to date. This album effortlessly provides a bridge between the mega-hits of his Commodore days, like Easy, Brickhouse and Three Times a Lady, to his solo career "Hello", "Dancing on The Ceiling" "Endless Love", All Night Long and now.

"Coming Home" is a return to Lionel's roots, whilst blazing new musical paths utilizing the very latest rhythms and input from some of the finest musical talents of today. It's the perfect album to embrace this rich musical legacy and the present. Lionel's soul satisfying performances will evoke memories for some and create new ones for others.
